v.

Case No. 3:09-CR-00047-FDW

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
Respondent

PRO SE NOTICE OF APPEAL

Now Comes, the Petitioner Curtis Watson, (hereinafter the Petitioner), pro se by and through this information, respectfully moves and requests this most Honorable Court to appeal his sentence on July 21, 2009, by the Honorable Judge Frank D. Whitney.

Therefore, Petitioner respectfully requests that the following reliefs be granted:

Remove counsel of record for the foregoing reasons. Mr. Peter Crane Anderson, sentencing counsel failed to file a Notice of Appeal when requested by the Petitioner. Estes v. United States, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 98527 (4th Cir. 2007). Attorney Anderson did not communicate with Petitioner after sentencing nor has provided the Petitioner any information of submission of requested filing of Notice of Appeal.

Counsel failed to subject the prosecution to meaningful adversary challenge. Davis v. Alaska, 415 U.S. 308(1974). It is clear from the Petitioner's perspective that this attorney did not submit his Notice of Appeal as it pertains to the Criminal Justice Act and Petitioner's right to appeal his sentence showing a clear Ineffective Assistance of Counsel.
